

THE DESIGNER AND HER WORK A Louisiana native and daughter of an architect and water-color artist, Janie Hirsch has experienced design throughout her life. She graduated from Louisiana State University with an interior design degree and has been designing award-winning interiors for over 20 years. Her signature includes an eclectic combination of classic furnishings and antiques with color, texture and pattern for a quiet sophistication in clients' homes. Her style is tailored and timeless, resulting in a design that ages gracefully.
